Greenville: National Bank loan officer, Sue Backs, participated in the 52nd Annual 4-H Auction held during the Bond County Fair. She is pictured with Cortney Lurkins who raised the barrow for the auction.

This was the first year that National Bank at Greenville participated in the event. Cortney raised the barrow as part of her 4-H project. This was a great event for 4-H, the auction raised $59,089.95. There were a total of thirteen steers, 27 barrows, 16 4-H members with milk products, four goats, two sheep wethers, two chickens, and seven rabbits sold during the auction.
