

National Bank Participates in Kid's Day America

For Immediate Release

June 17, 2008

Edwardsville – National Bank at Edwardsville recently participated in the Kids Day America/International events held at Infinite Wellness Chiropractic, Ltd: A Creating Wellness Center in Edwardsville. National Bank donated two bikes to be given out at the event. The girl's bike was won by Nova Lee Saucier from Edwardsville and the boy's bike was won by Hunter Ford from Troy.

Kid's Day America/International, is an event dedicated to children's health, safety and environmental awareness held in over 1400 cities worldwide. It was developed by caring chiropractors across America over 14 years ago. Infinite Wellness Chiropractic hosted its First Annual Kid's Day American on Saturday, May 17th from Noon until 3:00 p.m. in the office and the parking lot of their practice. While this was their first year for the event it is the 14th year for Kid's Day America/International.

The event featured free spinal health screenings provided by Infinite Wellness Chiropractic; The SIUE Police department provided fingerprinting for each child in attendance while the Edwardsville fire department was on hand with an ambulance for tours and a smoke house to give demonstrations on fire safety and home evacuation in case of a fire. The kids enjoyed Culvers frozen custard and fun in the two inflatables, provided by '62 Sports Group, after the health screening. Other local sponsors were: Philipps' Agency Farmer's Insurance, First Clover Leaf Bank, Brickman Orthodontics, TheBank of Edwardsville, Goshen Rotary, Mastroianni Orthodontics, West & Company, Scott Credit Union, Central Illinois Community Blood Center, Bully's, BiPod, First Community State Bank, and Sear's Optical.

Donations were accepted and proceeds from the event helped to support our local chapter of Habitat for Humanity.

"National Bank at Edwardsville is proud of the work Dr. Matt and Dr. Ryan are doing to support our local community and the health of our Children," said Gary Hoggatt, Jr. Branch Manager for National Bank. Hoggatt continued, "We are so pleased to have a small part in making this a fun day for the kids."
